

You're Invited:
THEATER PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT WORKSHOP

For ADULT STAFF who work with
MIDDLE/HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS at YOUTH-SERVING & COMMUNITY-BASED ORGANIZATIONS & MIDDLE OR HIGH SCHOOLS

When: FRIDAY, JULY 19, 3pm-9:30pm

*FREE OF COST! DINNER & TICKETS TO A BROADWAY MUSICAL WILL BE PROVIDED***

By participating in this PD, your organization will qualify to potentially receive **FREE** and pre- and post-performance workshops with professional Teaching Artists for your teens in addition to free tickets to a show!

Where: 520 8th Avenue, New York, NY, 10018

(Later in the day we'll go see the Broadway musical COME FROM AWAY)

At this PD, you will:

- *Participate in a fun, creative, and interactive workshop with like-minded colleagues
- *Attend the Broadway musical COME FROM AWAY as a group
- *Receive excellent tips and tools from professional arts educators about how to prepare your teens for live performance
- *Be empowered to have conversations, make real-world connections, and engage your teens in activities about the performing arts events you will attend in the future

RSVP by JULY 15 to Allison Whorton, Teen Programs Manager, at WhortonA@ArtsConnection.org or 212.302.7433 ext. 462 with your name, contact info (email & phone), & organization. Feel free to reach out with questions!

MORE THAN ONE STAFF MEMBER PER ORGANIZATION CAN ATTEND.

This professional development is made possible through the generous support of the Altman Foundation and: