Internship Available for Fall 2019:

Student Art Program

ArtsConnection's Student Art Program connects young artists from NYC public schools with corporate partners through exhibitions of student artwork, transforming art from a subject studied at school into a professional endeavor.

This fall, interns will work with the Teen Programs Manager for Exhibitions to gain valuable job-readiness and administrative skills associated with organizing student art exhibitions. They will gain a full view of a non-profit arts-in-education organization, with exposure to daily operations, programming meetings, and client meetings. Interns will:

- Learn about curating and installing art through viewing current exhibitions and participating in preparing for upcoming exhibitions
- Contribute to ArtsConnection Teen Programs online blog The JAR
- Contribute to outreach plan for program to students and teachers
- Communicate with currently exhibiting artists
- Create online galleries using Wordpress

Applicants should be:

- Interested in visual arts, exhibitions, teen artists, arts education
- Detail oriented
- Responsible and mature individual who work well independently and in teams
- Proficient in Photoshop and Excel

Schedule: October 15, 2019 - January 17, 2020; 12 weeks, 10 hours per week over 2 or 3 days per week. Schedule, on weekdays between 9am – 6pm, to be worked out with supervisor in advance.

Deadline: Fall 2019: Sunday September 29, 11:59pm.
